Cairn Capital announces the appointment of Michael Htun as portfolio manager for CLO tranche investments

23 January 2019, London Cairn Capital is pleased to announce the appointment of Michael Htun as a portfolio manager. Michael will be responsible for CLO tranche investments.

Michael has over 11 years of experience in financial markets, spread across trading, sales and structuring. Prior to joining Cairn Capital, Michael was a Vice President at NatWest Markets, where he worked in leveraged credit sales and CLO structuring. Prior to this, he ran the secondary European CLO trading business at RBC Capital Markets. Michael has also previously worked at Halcyon Asset Management, Bank of America and Fitch Ratings. Michael received a MSc in Mathematical Trading and Finance (Distinction) from Cass Business School and a BSc in Economics, Finance and Management from Queen Mary University of London.

Michael said "I am delighted to be joining Cairn Capital. The firm has a first class reputation founded on careful and rigorous analysis. With the appropriate expertise, the CLO market can continue to offer attractive risk-adjusted returns at this stage in the cycle. I look forward to contributing to Cairn Capital's continued success in this area."

Asif Godall, Co-CIO, said "We are delighted that Michael is joining our platform to strengthen our investment team in this important asset class for Cairn Capital."
